MCMICKEN HALL

Landscape Restoration Plan

The University of Cincinnati's McMicken Hall is the University's most iconic, historic and symbolic building. As the heart of UC's campus, McMicken Hall is located adjacent to Hiatt Plaza and overlooks Clifton Avenue at the McMicken steps.

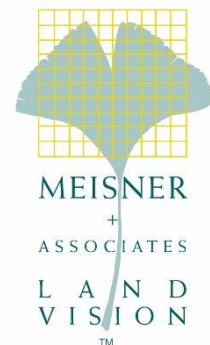

Meisner + Associates with University Staff created a site restoration Master Plan for the building and its immediate area. This plan preserves the historic aspects of the building and surroundings,

The plan included:

- Unique historic interpretive exhibits to tell the story of the University and the everlasting desire to acquire knowledge.
- Hiatt Plaza Renovation Plan
- Hanna/Cunningham Overlook Plan
- UC Historic Bas Relief Murals
